A message from Fr George:

From the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council

Christ is Present to His Church

Christ is always present to his Church, especially in the actions of the liturgy. He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, in the person of the minister (it is the same Christ who formerly offered himself on the cross that now offers by the ministry of priests) and most of all under the eucharistic species. He is present in the sacraments by his power, in such a way that when someone baptizes, Christ himself baptizes. He is present in his word, for it is he himself who speaks when the holy Scriptures are read in the Church. Finally, he is present when the Church prays and sings, for he himself promised: Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there in their midst.

Indeed, in this great work which gives perfect glory to God and brings holiness to men, Christ is always joining in partnership with himself his beloved Bride, the Church, which calls upon its Lord and through him gives worship to the eternal Father.

It is therefore right to see the liturgy as an exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ, in which through signs addressed to the senses man's sanctification is signified and, in a way proper to each of these signs, made effective, and in which public worship is celebrated in its fullness by the mystical body of Jesus Christ, that is, by the head and by his members.

Accordingly, every liturgical celebration, as an activity of Christ the priest and of his body, which is the Church, is a sacred action of a pre-eminent kind. No other action of the Church equals its title to power or its degree of effectiveness.

In the liturgy on earth we are given a foretaste and share in the liturgy of heaven, celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem, the goal of our pilgrimage, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God, as minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle. With the whole company of heaven we sing a hymn of praise to the Lord; as we reverence the memory of the saints, we hope to have some part with them, and to share in their fellowship; we wait for the Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, until he, who is our life, appears, and we appear with him in glory.

By an apostolic tradition taking its origin from the very day of Christ's resurrection, the Church celebrates the paschal mystery every eighth day, the day that is rightly called the Lord's day. On Sunday the Christian faithful ought to gather together, so that by listening to the word of God and sharing in the Eucharist they may recall the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus and give thanks to God who has given them a new birth with a lively hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The Lord's day is therefore the first and greatest festival, one to be set before the loving devotion of the faithful and impressed upon it, so that it may be also a day of joy and of freedom from work. Other celebrations must not take precedence over it, unless they are truly of the greatest importance, since it is the foundation and the kernel of the whole liturgical year (Sacrasanctum Concilium, nn. 7-8).

Lay Ecclesial Ministry

Do you want a deeper relationship with God? Do you want to learn more about your Catholic faith? Do you feel you are called to more? Perhaps God is tugging at your heart.

The Lay Ecclesial Ministry Formation may be the answer to your call. A Lay Minister will expand their knowledge of Scripture and Catholic Theology, learn to live their baptismal call in the service of others and strengthen and deepen their relationship with God through prayer, retreats, and spiritual direction.

As a Lay Minister you will be commissioned by the Bishop to serve in collaboration with the pastor of the parish.

If you are interested in Lay Ministry, please see flyers posted at the front and back of church. If you have more questions and are interested, please call the office for more details. 989-856-4933

The application period for Lay Ecclesial Ministry begins on February 1st. This formation has been in our diocese for more than 40 years and could be beneficial to our parish. Our parish is in need of another person for this ministry. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact: dpopielarz@diosag.org or call (989) 797-6660

Amazing News

Three bills failed! Thank you if you contacted your local legislators! Thankfully these 3 bills failed in the lame duck session December 2024.

House bill 6068 would have allowed sex education classes in our schools teach children where and how to obtain an abortion and would have required teaching about sexual orientation, gender expression, and various gender relationships failed.

HB 6077 and Senate Bill 1082 were identical bills which would have limited the choices that are presented to women to ONLY Abortion and would have withheld information on pregnancy supports and services, so women think their only option is abortion.

Please contact Senator Dan Lauwers and Representative Greg Alexander to say thank you for voting no on these bills.
